

ALBERTA SOCIETY OF HEALTH AND SAFETY PROFESSIONALS

CANDIDATE FOR BOARD MEMBER OHS – LACY THURMAN

Lacy Thurman, CRSP, NCSO, (she/her)

When it comes to occupational health and safety, Lacy Thurman, CRSP, NCSO, believes that connections are key. Thurman values creating meaningful and organic connections with those around her to help make profound changes in the way we look at occupational health and safety. Thurman is an Instructor with the Course Delivery team at the Alberta Construction Safety Association (ACSA) and finds a lot of value connecting with students in the virtual classroom. Previously she was a Senior COR Audit Analyst at the ACSA and helped auditors to better understand auditing and the application of standards against health and safety management systems.

Thurman has been practicing occupational health and safety for the past nine years and is always excited to learn new concepts and ideas, as well as to engage in conversation with her peers. Currently, she is a Co-Chair on the Engagement Committee for the Alberta Society of Health and Safety Professionals (ASHSP) as well as the Board Secretary. She is also a volunteer with the Canadian Society of Safety Engineering (CSSE). Thurman enjoys traveling the world with her family and reading as many books as she can.
